

SDI Lab Tools List

Muzzleloader Lab:

Provided:

- Transfer dye (inletting black or Prussian blue)
- Traditions® Shenandoah Rifle Black Powder Muzzleloader Kit™
- Ramelson® Chisels

Required:

- Power drill
- Twist drill bit set
- 120- to 400-grit sandpaper

Recommended:

- Vise with wood soft jaws
- Rawhide or Delrin-tipped hammer
- Needle file set
- Acid brushes
- Jerry Fisher® Scrapers
- Mark Lee® Express Brown™
- Non-latex disposable gloves
- Synthetic Steel Wool #000
- Small wood block
- 8" Half-Round Bastard File
- 8" Flat File
- Wood oil
- Wood sealer
- Caliper
- Wood stain
- Centerpunch

Notice: This tools list is both intended for use with SDI courses and recommended for most gunsmithing operations. Sonoran Desert Institute does not guarantee job placement or employment. Also, SDI bears no responsibility for improper use of any tools, as some items listed are hazardous and can result in injury or death. Caution must always be taken during the work on firearms, and supervision from a certified gunsmith is recommended before starting a gunsmithing operation.